LABOUR ATTACK CONTINUED "WORLD NOW SAFE FOR

DICTATORS" MEDITERRANEAN QUESTION AGAIN RAISED

London, To-day.

There was a less tense atmosphere in the House of Commons yesterday, compared with last Thursday, when Major C. R. Attlee (Lab., Limehouse) moved a motion of non-confidence in consequence of the Government's decision to abandon sanctions. Before the sitting Mr. Anthony Eden, Foreign Secretary, conferred with the Negus for three-quarters of an hour. Signor Grandi, Italian Ambassador in London, listened to the debate in the gallery."

Major Attlee said that the Government had pursued a feeble, tortuous and vaciliating policy for the last five years which had brought the country from its proud position in 1931 (derisive Ministerial cheers). The Government had betrayed Abyssinia and had destroyed the League as an effective instrument of peace. There was no security for any League State, if Italy was allowed to triumph over Abyssinia.

Not all the British Empire approved of the dropping of sanctions. The Dominion most nearly affected was strongly opposed to the proposal. What would be the effect on the minds of the natives of South Africa if Signor Mussolini wished to extend his dominions? Would Mr. Baldwin fight for Somaliland, the Sudan and Kenya? .- It would have been the Labour Party's policy to resist an aggressor attacking the League policy.

Replying, Sir John Simon, Home Secretary, agreed that the League had had a most serious attack, but the real question was to examire the situation with a sense of realities.

The point about the socks shoes, and boots stunt is that it helps youngsters to develop that sense of balance which is so important in cricket.

CUNNINGHAM'S DECLINE

TORRANCE'S ECLIPSE & TOP ROW'S FAILURE

PERRY AND JOE LOUIS FALTER

New York. — If the first couple of months provide an indication of what is in store for the sports fans, many of the "mighty" are due to tamble from their lofty perches in 1936.

Glenn Cunningham ruled the roost as indoor mile king last year and began the current campaign on the boards with an 800-Metres victory over Chuck Hornbostel. The first indication that all was not well with the Kansas flyer cropped up at Boston when Cunningham barely staved off a probable defeat by Joe Mangan by moving out from the pole as the former Cornell miler attempted to pass him in the stretch.

Cunningham was dropped from his perch when Mangan and Gene Venzke forced him to take third in the Wanamaker mile. Venzke's two victories over his former conqueror, in the Baxter Mile and in the national A.A.U. 1,500-Metres, particularly because of the fast time on both occasions, do not indicate that Cunningham has slipped as much as it shows that the popular Gene has regained the form he flashed four years ago - with considerable more to boot. His 3.39.9 for the 1.500 Metres in the "national" set up a new world indoor mark and leaves no doubt that the Pennsylvania senior is running faster than ever before in his career.

Jack Torrance, former Louisiana State shot-put star, invaded the east in search of new triumphs. He holds the world records for putting the 16-pound ball, indoors and out. After taking part in three indoor meets, Jack has only three second medals to show for his efforts: A heretofore unknown, one Dimitri Zaits, an ineligible student at Boston College competing unattached, defeated the COMERSET had an unhappy the side were out for 10s, and southern giant three times in a several of their Canton players day at Lord's last month, eight wickets were down for 128. row at his specialty. PERILOUS TRIP ROUND WORLD IN SMALL BOAT

From Seattle Across Pacific

ADVENTURE IN HURRICANE IN TASMAN SEA

Taking 22 days to cross the Tasman Sea from Auckland to Sydney and 18 months (with pauses) to cross the Pacific Ocean from Seattle, Washington, Dwight S. Long, a Seattle University graduate arrived in Sydney, N.S.W. last month in his 32-foot ketch Idle Hour, thus completing the first half of a leisurely round-the-world cruise. The ketch has now travelled 14,000 miles.

Since the Idle Hour left Seattle she has been to Hawaii the Marquesas, the Tuamotus, Tahiti, the Cook Islands, Samoa Tonga, New Zealand and now Australia. A Tahiti, Timi, a 15-year-old native, joined the ketch and he was Mr. Long's only companion from there to Auckland. Two New Zealanders joined him for the Tasman 1,300 miles crossing.

1935 EDITION

The 25 Chapters of the 17th issue of the CHINA YEAR BOOK, edited by H. G. W. Woodhead, C.B.E., have as usual been revised or rewritten with the assistance of many experts, Chinese and foreign, and every effort has been made to bring information and statistics up to date. -

The Chapter on the Knomintang covers the political history of China in 1934. The Chapter on the Chinese Government contains the Text of the Provisional Constitution, the Organic Law, and the Draft of the Permanent Constitution.

The Chapter on International Issues gives the text of the Agreement and Exchange of Notes of the sale of the Chinese-Eastern Railway, besides the latest documents relating to Sino-Japanese issues.

China's Communications - Railways, Roads, Post Office, Telegraphs, Wireless, Telephones and Aviation—are very fully dealt with.

Father D'Elia, in the Chapter on Religions, contributes an interesting Chronological Review of Catholic Missions in

Mr. E. Kann is again asponsible for the Chapter on Curreency and Banking, and the Loan Tables. A new feature is a Chapter on China's Modern Industries.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Student Receives Sentence

DISPUTE OVER LOAN

Sentence of three months' hard labour was passed on Pang Ki Yip, aged 24 years, a student, at the Criminal Sessions this morning, when he was found guilty by the jury on the charge of manslaughter of Chu San-lam at Shamshuipo on May 1, last.

His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, took the case, the prosecution being in the hands of Mr. E. H. Williams, the Assistant Attorney-General. The following jury was empanelled:-Messrs. C. A. Goldenburg, Kwan Yin-kwong, So Man-ying, Au Fong-yue, Tung Wing-ki, Ho Quee-hin, and Thong Po-hing-

In outlining the case, Mr. Williams said that some time before the incident, the deceased had quarrel over the return of the loan, and the stories told of what happened at the quarrel varied. The deceased's wife and step-son said that the accused suggested by refusing to take the risks of seeking the advice of some claus-Later: Mr. Baldwin paid a peace they had increased the risks men, and it was while they were that the accused suddenly struck the deceased, who collapsed and

INDIA'S IMMENSE INCREASE OF POPULATION

NEARING 400,000,000 :

Delhi.—India's population is increasing rapidly toward the 400,000,000 mark. Dr. R. D. Dalal, member of the Central Legislature, drew attention to this fact, at a recent meeting of that body.

The increase that is taking place, Dr. Dalal added, calls for urgent action to prevent lowering of the scale of living.

He urged that such aspects of the population problem as polygamy, polyandry, national food policy, marketing schemes, industrial development and colonisation schemes all required close

GASOMETERS AT WEST POINT

QUESTIONS TO BE ASKED TO-DAY

At this afternoon's meeting of the Legislative Council the Hon. Mr. Chau Tsun-nin will ask the following questions:

With reference to the Hon. Colonial Secretary's replies to the questions asked by the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall in this Council on January 10, 1935, in regard to the explosion of a gasometer at West Point, will the Government state:

(1) Whether it has been finally decided to move the gasometer at West Point to a more suitable site; and, if so, where the site is:

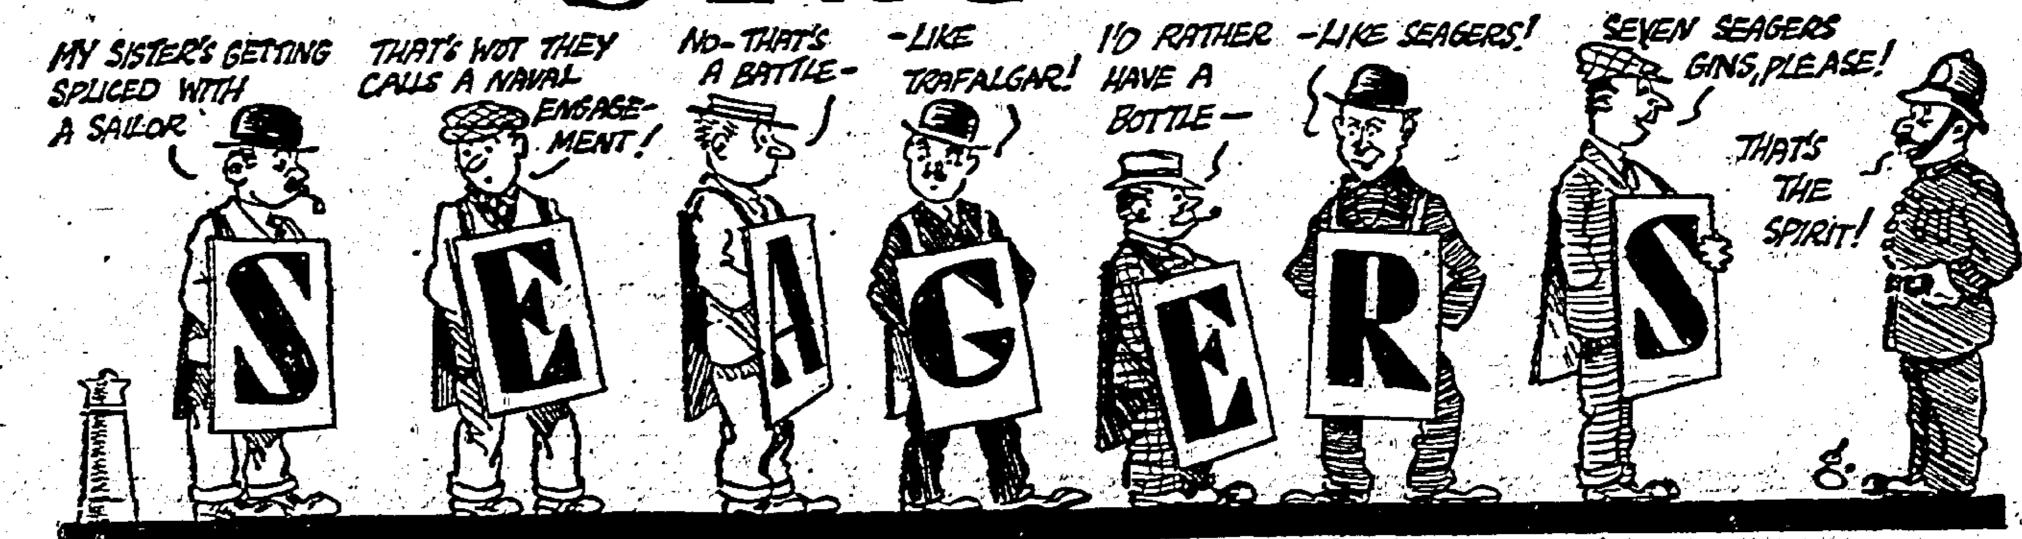

(2) Whether advice of the Home Authorities has been obtained as to whether special legislation for the compulsory inspection of gasometers is desirable here; and

(3) What action does the Government propose to take in regard to gasometers in other parts of the Colony?

HONOURS FOR HIS MAJESTY'S BIRTHDAY

AT COLOURFUL PARADE

A crowd estimated at over 50,000 was present yesterday a one of the most striking spectacles ever witnessed in the annals of the Colony, when Hong Kong's fighting forces paraded at Happy Edward VIII. Valley, the King's Birthday Review exceeding in splendour any ceremonial of its nature ever held here.

The Review was featured by an excellent display by each unit on review, and while each contingent is to be congratulated upon its smartness in the March Past, special mention must be made of the 2nd Bn.. The Royal Welch-Fusiliers, led by their Royal goat.

The 1st Bn. The Royal Ulster Rifles, with their quick march and the way in which they carry their rifles, added a touch of the unusual to the whole spectacle, while the appearance of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, the Hong Kong Police that this singularity of ours Force, the Police Reserve and a Chinese detachment of the quite accidental and due to the Naval Volunteer Force, for the first time in a Birthday Review, gave extreme satisfaction to all sections of the communi- ade from the morning to the
